Presidents Report

After 2020, I think everybody was looking forward to 2021 as our year to “get back to normal”. And there was some semblance of normality for the first few months, but again our season and activities were interrupted by the COVID-19 health crises.

I would like to thank all of our players, our team coordinators and particularly your committee for keeping on top of the raft of constantly changing requirements and keeping ACT Masters on the field. Given the number of sports that lost entire seasons, we were lucky to only cancel the second half of our second quarter. We did manage the Canberra (Tradies) Cup in March, and after the cancellation of the Nationals, the ACT hosted a very successful Intercity Challenge.

The Canberra Cup saw us chase some additional teams to balance the draw. Two of those new teams, Strawmen, representing Queanbeyan and WVA, representing the Women’s Veterans Association won their division.

The Intercity Challenge saw aged-based teams from Sydney and Canberra compete for the Merv Goodridge and Doug Dawson Cup, named to honour of two stalwart administrators of each association. Canberra had an advantage in that we had returned to hockey by December, but for many of our Sydney competitors, this was their first run in five months. Canberra jumped to an early lead, but a tight finish in the final game saw Sydney take the trophy they donated back home. Our intention is to make this an annual event.

Again, 2021 saw the COVID 19 pandemic provide a boost to participation in our Monday night competition. We creep closer and closer to the limits of the facilities in the ACT, but the opening of the Goulburn pitch in March 2022 will provide a little more space to expand.

The Happy Hour of Hockey, played on most Thursday afternoons, provided a perfect introduction for players returning to the game, along with those retirees looking for some friendship and activity. Again lockdown has boosted participation and we again started 2022 looking at how to manage 30 players. Hockey ACT provide great support for this program.

I should also take the opportunity to congratulate our committee on another year of good governance. We are a diverse group who gel together to ensure our members get responsible financial management, care and consideration of safety while providing every possible opportunity to participate in the game we love.

Keep your fingers crossed – 2022 might be the “return to normal” year!
